MURDER CASE IS DRAGGING ALONG

Prosecutor Calls Number Of Witnesses To Fasten The Crime On Wm. Davis.

Susie Davis, Eli Davis' widow, wearing her garb of sombre black, was on the stand when the grand jury recessed at noon today, she having been called after her son, John, had been questioned at great length.

It is said that the attorneys for the defense will make a close investigation of the mental condition of some of the ancestors of Will Davis, the boy accused of patricide. It is alleged that an uncle and a cousin of the boy's mother were both irrational.

This Morning's Session

John Davis, the eighth witness, was on the stand when the grand jury resumed its second day's session Friday morning shortly after 9 o'clock to investigate the death of Eli Davis. John had been on the stand when the grand jury adjourned Thursday evening and was recalled by Prosecutor McDowell. After three doctors, Lower, Lear and Barcroft, and Mr. and Mrs. Kemel Smith, the youngest Davis boy, Charles, was called and then Eli, the next to the youngest. John followed Eli. The grand jury will probably be in session all day Saturday and a number of witnesses have been called for Monday. Several more subpoenas were issued this morning. Among the witnesses who were at the witness room waiting to be called today were: Mr. and Mrs. Melby Powelson, Miss Bessie Davis, Messrs. Jos. Johnson and George Barnes, these two being among the first to arrive at the scene of the murder, and several local newspaper men.

MANY SQUIRREL HUNTERS START FORTH TODAY

Going up! That's the call all the squirrels are giving, and they are taking to the tree tops. For the annual October army of hunters were early on the scene Friday morning, and the early reports are that the battle is waging fast and furious. In numbers the Hunter Army about equals the Squirrel forces, and the former is better armed; but the latter is quicker when it comes to forced marches.

Ed Bright returned from the field of battle with seven fine gray and fox squirrels, and James Pyles had six hanging from his belt. Others who are out in the high brush are Officer Courtwright and Fretague and Messrs. E. L. Robertson, Riley, Speck, Tom Crowley, Bob Huff and many others, all going in various directions.

Clarence Hay and John Karr went to Keene early Friday morning in Mr. Hay's machine to spend the day hunting squirrel.

Charles Dover and Elmer Pierce left Thursday night for Linton township, eighteen miles from town, where they will spend several days bagging bush-tails. They have promised a mess to all their friends.

Clarence Hay and John Karr returned at 2 o'clock with eight squirrels each and a yellow pumpkin. Their sixteen squirrels weighed just in pounds.

A. R. Vensel is hunting, and visiting relatives in Adams-twp.

WHO WAS THE BOY THAT WAS WITH DAVIS?

Authorities are looking high and low for the boy with whom young Davis was with at the time he left home three years ago and it found will be used as a main witness in the case against Davis. The attorneys for the state are wanting him very badly. The boy's name cannot be found out as the attorneys cannot see Davis at the jail on the matter and there is little possibility of their getting information any other way. It seems that Davis got with the boy at Newark and it is said that he was Davis' brother. From there they went over the country together for a while Davis finally lost the boy at Massillon.

CLERK M'BANE NOT BOOSTING GRAB FOR FEES

County Clerk McBane is leery of "these city feilers" who are trying to get the legislature to restore the old fashion whereby clerks were paid on the fee system. In the big cities this amounts to a large sum. He has received a letter from the clerk of Cuyahoga-co. but has not answered it. The county clerk's association is trying to stir up agitation for restoration of the old law.

WARSAW CREAMERY CHANGES HANDS

Parrish Bros. of Loudenville have purchased the Warsaw creamery of E. W. Mills and will take possession next Monday. The new firm is installing new butter making machinery and will manufacture fancy creamery butter. A. D. Hughes, who has been local manager of the plant for some years, will continue in the same position with the new firm.

MRS. BRANT NOT INVOLVED IN HUSBAND'S CASE

The members of the auditing committee of the Morgan Run Benefit Assn. state that they feel nothing but sympathy and good will for Mrs. Brant, whose husband, treasurer of the organization, has disappeared. They feel confident that she knows no more of his whereabouts than they themselves, and do not blame her in any way. They believe confidently her statement that she did not go on his security to borrow $50 the day before he disappeared.

PERRY JONES CASE TOMORROW

Squire Wimmer's court will present an animated scene Saturday morning when the arguments will take place in the case of the state vs. Perry Jones, charged with dynamiting fish in the Muskingum river. Lawyer Burns and Farrenbaugh of the state game warden's department, and Glenn & Reasoner the defense. An alibi was sought to be established by the evidence which was submitted a few days ago.

FORMER CASE IS REVIVED

What is known in legal language as a "Nunc pro tunc" entry was placed on the journal of common pleas court Thursday by order of Judge Nicholas. It means in common English "Now for then". That is the entry should have been put on some time ago. It is in connection with the appointment Nov. 11, 1906 of Louis McClain and B. F. Voorhees to assist Prosecutor James Glenn in the examination of the annual report of the county commissioners. It will be remembered that the committee worked several weeks at $3 per day and after a careful examination of the report found several serious irregularities in the work of the commissioners and so reported to the court. At that time, it seems, no journal entry of the appointment was made and they made application to the court to have the entry filed in order that they may draw their fees from the county.

NIGHT WATCHMAN SAW RAINBOW AT 2 O'CLOCK A. M.

Moon caused unusual Phenomenon after Rain Thursday Night.

A most unusual phenomenon was observed in the eastern sky at 2 o'clock in the morning, Thursday, by John Allman, nightwatchman at the brick yards on Fifteenth-st. It was a brilliant moonlight night in spite of the fact that it had rained earlier in the evening. Mr. Allman stepped out doors to get a breath of fresh air and was astounded to see a perfect rainbow, with every color distinct, in the eastern sky. It was as plain and as clear as in mid day. While such cases are exceedingly rare yet they have been known before. The bright light of the moon acts in the same capacity as the rays of the sun.

DOCTOR PUTS NEW COLOR ON DAMAGE CASE

In the damage case of Chas. Laffin vs. Dr. E. M. Wright of Warsaw in which the defendant is charged with negligence in the setting of a fractured bone in Laffin's left leg on October 17, 1908, the answer of Dr. Wright was filed in common pleas court Friday morning. Sensational developments are hinted at as the answer of Dr. Wright states that the plaintiff was afflicted with a certain malady at the time of the injury to his leg and that this malady prevented the bone from knitting properly. The doctor also alleges that Laffin did not remain quiet. James Glenn and T. H. Wheeler represent Dr. Wright.

NEW MANAGER AT WESTERN UNION

B. F. Leland, who for the past few months has been the popular manager of the Western Union in Coshocton left today for Dallas, Tex. He is succeeded here by C. P. Young, of Dayton, who took charge Friday.

CHANGE TODAY AT THE BANKS

A change took place in local banks today when Cliff Magruder, formerly teller of the Peoples bank went into the Commercial National to become assistant cashier, taking the place of County Auditor Elect Winters who takes his new office the latter part of the month. Carl McGinness takes the place made vacant by Mr. Magruder, with the Peoples, coming from the Panhandle freight offices.

WILL SPECIALIZE IN MEDICINE

Dr. E. C. Edwards of West Carlisle left Friday for New York City to specialize in medicine at a New York medical university.

Motor Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Forbes went to Urbinsville Friday morning in their machine to attend the annual hill climb.

CHICKEN THIEVES LANDED FOUR

Farley Connerty, Democratic member of the service board, was visited by a chicken thief some time Thursday night and four fine and fat young pullets carried off. He is now arranging dynamite mines around the door of his hen house.

HAMILTON IS RIGHT CONTEMPT PROCEEDINGS PREMATURE

Judge Weygandt Renders Opinion in Famous Police Chief Case

Another case of premature firing. Judge Weygandt has rendered his opinion in the case of John Mapel vs. Mayor Hamilton, in which Mapel sought to have the mayor fined up for contempt of court. The court decrees that the fact that the mayor filed an appeal to the circuit court lifts the case entirely out of the common pleas court, and that "the proceedings in contempt are premature."

The opinion recites the previous action in the case: that a mandamus had been asked and granted and that the mayor had restored Mapel as ordered, but only for a few minutes, as stated by the plaintiff.

The opinion does not delve into the merits of the case at all, saying that the matter is now before the circuit court because of the mayor's appeal of the case.

NOTED GAS AND ELECTRIC MAGNATE IN COSHOCTON

One of the greatest electrical and gas magnates in the world, Henry L. Daugherty, of Denver and New York, was a Coshocton visitor for a few hours Thursday.

Together with Supt. Anderson of the Canton plant, Supt. Tidd of Altoona, Supt. Green of Muncie and the superintendent of the Marion, Ind. plant, he was in Coshocton for a short time in a big motor car, on their way west from Canton. They stopped for dinner at the Park hotel.

Mr. Daugherty is president of the Denver Electric Light and Gas Co., president of the Empire Electrical Co., of Missouri and of the American Electric Co., which owns plants in the above named cities and in many others over the country, and is a director in at least a dozen of the big best electrical companies in the United States.

Their visit to Coshocton had no local significance as they called on no one, but partook of their dinner and then resumed their journey.

Daugherty is one of the men who figure prominently in the article in Everybody's, now appearing, written by Judge Lindsey of Denver.

Before Squire Staats

The Schanes Parlor Frame Co., of Cleveland, Ohio, have begun suit in Squire Staats' court against the Schulte Furniture Factory of this city, for a judgement of $102.75 with interest from May 3, 1909 which they claim is due them on a bill of furniture sold the local company on that date.

New Clothing Racks

J. B. Leavengood, the clothier, has installed three new steel-framed clothing racks in his store on Main-st.

TURNED BUGGY AND UPSET IT

A woman driving a sorrel mare was thrown from her buggy at the Wheeling ad Lake Erie crossing on Cambridge-st. late Thursday afternoon. The woman was driving a lively horse a quiet animal. She turned from Cambridge onto Orange, and finding that she had gone in the wrong direction picked up what she thought to be both lines and gave a strong pull on them to stop the animal but instead of picking up both lines she grabbed only one and the horse turning suddenly cramped the buggy, throwing the driver out. Ross Reed, who happened along at the time, hurried to the woman's assistance and found that she was not hurt. She continued on her way after a few minutes.

TAKES CASE TO CLEVELAND COURT

W. S. Merrell was in Cleveland Thursday to argue in Common pleas court of Cuyahoga county a motion to dismiss the appeal from probate to common pleas in the case of Simon P. Angie vs. Amanda Snyder administratrix of the estate of Dr. Simon P. Snyder. The probate court refused to probate the will and the case was appealed to higher court. Mr. Merrell is the attorney for the defense.

BLIND MAN DIES AT WEST CARLISLE

Lewis Ramsey, aged 85, a respected citizen of Pike tp., died of old age Thursday afternoon one mile and a half south of West Carlisle. He is survived by his wife and several children. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon from the late home, and interment made in the Farquhar cemetery. Mr. Ramsey has been totally blind for a number of years.

CHILDREN AT CHAUTAUQUA

The program committee of the Chautauqua board will meet this evening at seven o'clock at W. S. Merrell's office to decide on the speaker for childrens day next year.

WILL EXPLORER COOK GO THROUGH COSHOCTON THE WEEK OF THE FAIR?

Will Dr. Frederick Cook the artic explorer, pass through Coshocton in the next few days? Look out for a woman doing Chautauqua work in Nebraska. Her lecture was to be on county option and at the last minute the members of the Chautauqua board asked her if she would object to debating with Darwin the "Whiskey May or" of Omaha. It seems that Mayor Darwin aspired to the governorship of Nebraska, and of course would carry out the tactics which he used as mayor, and would be a "wet" governor. Mrs. Richards figured that if she were to debate with Mayor Darwin all of his "wet" friends would come to hear him, and in that way, would be forced to stay and listen to her, and the temperance side of the debate. It proved to be the drawing card of the Chautauqua season, and while Mrs. Richards does not claim the credit, Mr. Darwin has never been elected governor of Nebraska. The lecturer is strongly of the opinion that Ohio will soon be a dry state. She says: "In a recent talk with the Chief of Police of Cleveland, he tells me that all of the unmanageable saloon keepers, and low charac

MURDER TODAY AT NEW PHILADELPHIA, O.

JEALOUS HUSBAND SHOOTS HIS WIFE

Just after breakfast this morning a shocking murder occurred at New Philadelphia strikingly similar to the Eli Davis murder which occurred near Coshocton Sunday morning. In a senselessly jealous passion like that which prompted Shakespeare's Othello to kill Desdemona, Louis J. Parsons, 38, fired a bullet from a 32-calibre revolver into the back of his wife's head, killing her instantly. He then fired three shots into his own breast. He was taken to the Union hospital at Dover and will recover. The dead woman, Alice Parsons, was 37 years of age. W. H. Briggs, a boarder was the only witness to the shooting.

She had announced her intention at breakfast of going to the Urbinsville street fair. Her husband had formed the idea that she was on friendly terms with a man at Urbinsville and thought she was going there to see this man. Investigation has proved beyond doubt that there was no real grounds for the husband's jealousy.

The husband jumped up from the breakfast table and said: "If you'll empty my trunk I'll pack up and go east. I'll send some of my clothes to my brother and I'll follow."

Mrs. Parsons went upstairs to the bedroom to comply with her husband's request. He followed her and fired from behind, killing her instantly and then turned the gun on himself. Three doctors were called. Parsons is a moulder by trade but was working as a painter recently. He had not been drinking. They have lived in New Philadelphia 15 years at 329 West St. Clair-st.

Next W. C. T. U. Convention To Be Held At Warsaw

The members of the Coshocton W. C. T. U., their friends, and all who are interested in the work of the union, were treated to an unusually entertaining lecture at the W. C. T. U. convention Thursday afternoon at the M. E. Church, when Mrs. Florence D. Richards, lecturer, organizer and philosopher of Leipsic, Ohio gave an informal talk on temperance.

Mrs. Richards was delightful. Her delivery was splendid, every word of her excellent address reaching the ears of those who sat in the farthest corner of the auditorium. In her opening remarks Mrs. Richards gave very favorable comment upon the address of the county president, Mrs. Thrapp and used Mrs. Thrapp's motto, "Op-timism", a great deal during her talk. Mrs. Richards is very much in favor of woman's suffrage, and her lecture showed very plainly what a great advantage she thinks it will be to the country, at large, when women are entitled to a vote. Among the many interesting experiences that Mrs. Richards told of, was that of a

THE PRINCESS VIRGINIA

BY C. N. AND A. M. WILLIAMSON

Authors of "The Lightning Conductor," "Rosaire in Search of a Father," Etc.
COPYRIGHT, 1902, BY MCCLURE, PHILLIPS & CO.

"And, as for my knowledge of Rhaetia, I've always been interested in the study of languages. Languages are fascinating to conquer, and then the literature of your country is so splendid one must be able to read it at first hand. Now, you'll have to say 'Yes' to the emperor, won't you, and keep it for your emperor's sake, if not for mine?"

"May I not keep it for yours as well?"

"Yes, if you please. And—about the milk?"

The chamois hunter caught up a gaudy jug and without further words went out. When he had gone the princess rose, and, taking the knife he had used to cut the bread and ham, she kissed the handle on the place where his fingers had grasped it. "You're a very silly girl, Virginia, my dear," she said. "But, oh, how you do love him! How he is worth loving, and—what a glorious hour you're having!"

For ten minutes she sat alone, perhaps more. Then the door was flung open and her host flung himself in, no longer with the gay air which had sat like a cloak upon him, but hot and sulky, the jug in his hand as empty as when he had gone out.

"I have failed," he said gloomily. "I have failed, though I promised you the milk."

"Couldn't you find a cow?" asked Virginia.

"Oh, yes, I found one, more than one, and caught them too. I even forced them to stand still and grasped them by their udders, but not a drop of milk would come down. Abominable brutes! I would gladly have killed them, but that would have given you no milk."

For her life the princess could not help laughing, his air was so desperate. If only those cows could have known who he was and appreciated the honor!

"Pray, pray don't mind," she begged. "You have done more than most men could have done. After all, I'll have a glass of Rhaetian beer with you to drink your health and that of your emperor. I wonder, by the bye, if he, who prides himself on doing all things well, can milk a cow."

"If not, he should learn," said the chamois hunter, viciously. "There's no knowing, it seems, when one may need the strangest accomplishments and be humiliated for lack of them."

"No, not humiliated," Virginia assured him. "It's always instructive to find out one's limitations. And you have been most good to me. See, while you were gone I ate the slice of bread and ham you cut, and never did a meal taste better. Now, you must have many things to do which I've made you leave undone. I've trespassed on you too long."

"Indeed, lady, it seems scarcely a money back!"

C. E. Anderson sells a Remedy for Catarrh on that Liberal Basis.

Breathe Hyomei over the germ-ridden membrane, and it will kill the germs, and cure catarrh.

There is no other way—you must get where the germs are before you can destroy them.

And when catarrh germs have disappeared, other things will happen; there will be no more hawking, not even in the morning; that offensive breath will disappear; there will be no more obnoxious mucous of coughing, or sneezing, or huskiness of voice, or difficulty in breathing. All these disagreeable accessories of the demoralized catarrh will disappear, and as they go the glow of health will return, and all the strength and energy that was formerly used in combating the inroads of catarrh, will bring back your vitality and ambition will make a new, healthy, happy being of you in a few weeks.

C. E. Anderson will sell you a complete Hyomei outfit for $1.00. This includes a fine inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mey), and instructions for use. Sold by leading druggists everywhere. Extra bottles 50 cents. And bear in mind, money back if Hyomei doesn't cure.

moment since you came, and I have no work to do," the chamois hunter insisted.

"But I've a friend waiting for me on the mountain," the princess confessed. "Luckily she had her lunch and will have eaten it, and her guidebook must have kept her happy for a while, but by this time I'm afraid she's anxious and would be coming in search of me if she dared to stir. I must go. Will you tell me by what name I shall remember my rescuer when I recall this day?"

"They named me for the emperor," he said. "They were wise. It suits you. Let me think of you as Leopold. Leopold what? But, no; don't tell me the other name. It can't be good enough to match the first, for, do you know, I admire the name of Leopold more than any other I've ever heard? So, Leopold, will you shake hands for good-bye?"

The strong hand came out eagerly and pressed hers. "Thank you, gnaflein, but it's not good-bye yet. You must let me help you back by the way you came and down the mountain."

"Will you really? I dared not ask as much for fear, in spite of your kind hospitality, you were, like your noble namesake, a hater of women."

"That's too hard a word even for an emperor, lady, while, as for me, if I ever said to myself 'No woman can be of much good to a man as a real companion' I'm ready to unsay it."

"I'm glad, then, you shall come with me and help me, and you shall help my friend, who is so good and so strong-minded, that perhaps she may make you think even better of our sex. If you will you shall be our guide down to Alleheiligen, where we've been staying at the inn since last night. Besides all that, if you wish to be very good you may carry our cloaks and rucksacks, which seem so heavy to us, but will be nothing for your strong shoulders."

The face of the chamois hunter changed and changed again with such amused appreciation of her demands that Virginia turned her head away lest she should laugh and thus let him guess that she held the key to the inner situation.

His willingness to become a cowherd and now a beast of burden for the foreign lady he had seen and her friend, whom he had not seen was indubitably genuine. He was pleased with the adventure, if not as pleased as his initiated companion. For the next few hours the hunter was free. It seemed. He said that he had been out since early dawn and had had good luck. Later he had returned to the hut for a meal and a rest, while his friends went down to the village on business which concerned them all. As they had not come back, they were probably amusing themselves, and when he had given the ladies all the assistance in his power he would join them.

The way down was easy to Virginia, with his hand to help her when it was needed, and she had never been so happy in her twenty years. But, after all, she asked herself as they neared the place where she had left Miss Portman, what had she accomplished? What impression was she leaving? Would this radiant morning of adventure do her good or harm to Leopold when Miss Mowbray should meet him later in some conventional way through letters of introduction to court dignitaries at Kronburg?

While she wondered his voice broke into her questionings.

"I hope, gnaflein," the chamois hunter was saying, almost shrilly and as if by an effort, "that you won't go away from our country thinking that we Rhaetians are so cold of heart and blood as you've seemed to fancy. We men of the mountains may be different from others you have seen, but we're not more cold. The torrent of our blood may sleep for a season, under ice, but when the spring comes, as it must, and the ice melts, then the torrent gushes forth the more hotly because it has not spent its strength before."

"I shall remember your words," said the princess. "For my journal of Rhaetia. And, now, here's my poor friend

I shall have to make her a thousand excuses."

For her journal of Rhaetia! For a moment the man looked wistful, as if it were a pain to him that he would have no other place in her thoughts now time to win it since there sat a lady in a tourist's hat and eyeglasses, and the episode was practically closed. He looked, too, as if there was something he would add to his last words if he could, but Miss Portman saw the two advancing figures and shrieked a shrill cry of thanksgiving.

"Oh, I have been so dreadfully anxious," she groaned. "What has kept you? Have you had an accident? Thank heaven you're here! I began to give up hope of ever seeing you again alive."

"Perhaps you never would if I hadn't been for the help of this good and brave new friend of mine," said Virginia, hurrying into explanations. "I got into dreadful difficulties up there. It was much worse than I thought, but Leopold—Miss Portman started, stared with her nearsighted eyes at the tall brown man with bare knees, colored, gasped and swallowed hard after a quick glance at her princess. "Leopold happened to be near. He came to my help and saved me. Wasn't it providential? Oh, I assure you, Leopold is a monarch of chamois hunters. Give him your cloak and rucksack to carry with mine, dear Miss Manchester. He's kind enough to say that he'll guide us all the way down to Alleheiligen, and I'm glad to accept his service."

Miss Portman, a devout royalist and firm believer in the right of kings, grew crimson, her nose especially, as it invariably did at moments of strong emotion.

The emperor of Rhaetia here, caught and trapped, like Pegasus bound to the plow, and forced to carry luggage as if he were a common porter—worst of all, her insignificant, twice wretched luggage!

She would have protested if she had dared, but she did not dare and was obliged to see that imperial form—mistakenly, it seemed to her, though masquerading in humble guise—loaded down with her rucksack and her large golf cape, with golf shoes in the pocket.

Crushed under the magnitude of her discovery, dazzled by the surprising brilliance of the princess' capture, stopped by the fear of saying or doing the wrong thing and ruining her idol's bizarre triumph, poor Miss Portman staggered as Virginia helped her to her feet.

"Why were you so long?" cried the princess. "Be careful. But Leopold will give you his arm. Leopold will take you down, won't he, Leopold?"

And the imperial eagle, who had hoped for better things, weekly allowed another link to be added to his chain.

Sick Headache And Indigestion

The Former is Very Frequently Caused By The Latter

The pneumo-gastric nerve connects the stomach region directly with the brain, and when the stomach is out of order the head is almost certain to be effected through reflex or sympathetic nervous irritation.

The headache of dyspepsia and indigestion is of every variety from the dull and least defined to the most acute pain. Sometimes the whole mass of the brain seems racked with anguish; at other times the ache is confined to the back or front part of the head. The first form is usually of a confused character, and is often accompanied by dimness of vision, and a mild vertigo, or so-called "rush of blood to the head." The victims of this symptom complain of a "swimming" or "lightness" in the head, and dizziness, or a sensation of motion while the body is still and specks, or flashes of light before the eyes.

Persons subject to indigestion and other form of stomach trouble are very frequent sufferers from headache, and in numerous cases a sick headache is the only noticeable symptom of indigestion present. In others, there are stomach manifestations as well.

The majority of people regard this headache as a separate disease, instead of a symptom of stomach disease, which it usually is! and they attempt to treat it separately, and make the mistake of endeavoring to obtain relief through the use of headache powders, tablets, pills and setzers, the use of which is extremely dangerous, as many of them contain such powerful depressant drugs as acetanilid, phenacetin, atropine, caffeine, etc., which depress the heart, brain and nerve centers, and lower arterial pressure, and many a person with a weak heart has become dangerously ill shortly after taking one of those headache remedies. They also interfere with the digestive processes, and actually make the dyspepsia worse than before.

In order to get rid of the headache of indigestion—and most headaches are caused by stomach trouble—one should endeavor to reach and remove the cause, and the headache effect will soon be relieved.

STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS do not cure the symptoms; they cure the cause of the headache, which permanently removes the symptoms. They digest every atom of food in the stomach cure all forms of stomach trouble, and the headache, and every other disagreeable symptom and untoward effect is quickly gotten rid of.

Don't make the mistake of trying to cure your dyspepsia or nervous headache through the use of headache powders, tablets, etc. Use common sense, good judgment, and one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you will be agreeably surprised at the rapidity with which the headache will be relieved and cured simultaneously with the relief and cure of the stomach disturbance.

FLATIRON STORE ON NEW PLAN

In today's issue of The Age will be found an interesting advertisement from F. A. Albertson, proprietor of the "Flatiron" store on the hill, in which he announces that he is going into the cash business, and henceforth sell strictly for cash. The advertisement shows the advantage to be reaped by buying for cash for the buyer, saves several cents on every item he purchases. Mr. Albertson is going to close out his dry goods and shoes within ten days and devote his entire attention to groceries and country produce.

No More Rheumatism

Torturing Pains and Swollen Joints Vanish when Rheuma, the New Prescription is Used.

At last a cure for Rheumatism! And a good one it must be, when C. E. Anderson guarantees it to cure or money back.

Rheumatism should hail this news with great rejoicing, for it surely is a most remarkable remedy and has a record of almost unbelievable cures from the Atlantic to Pacific. Here is what R. Gedge, a prominent citizen of Buffalo says: "Suffering severely from Rheumatism I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of Rheuma, with the assurance that it certainly would relieve me. I am happy to say that it not only did so, but surpassing expectations has apparently cured me entirely, as now nearly one year has elapsed without the slightest return of this painful disease." 29 Richmond Ave.

If you have Rheumatism try Rheuma, if it don't cure you it costs you nothing. Surely, that's a fair offer.

Rheuma is the favorite prescription of a celebrated physician; it acts on the kidneys, bowels, liver and blood, all at the same time, and it rids the system of all poisons. Fifty cents for a bottle at C. E. Anderson. Get one today. Mail orders filled by Rheuma Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

BUMBAUGH TELLS PLANS

Will Soon Launch Monster Dirigible Balloon at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 1.—It was learned that Carl Fisher and G. L. Bumbaugh of this city are constructing a dirigible balloon which, they declare, is to be the largest in the United States. The bag is to be 165 feet long and 32 feet in diameter. It will have a capacity for 1,000 pounds of ballast and three men will be required to operate it. Bumbaugh said that he intends to launch the balloon from the Indianapolis motor speedway about Oct. 10 and, after soaring about the soldiers' and sailors' monument in this city, to start for Dayton, O.

RACE ENTRIES ARE COMING IN RAPIDLY

Secretary W. B. Miller, of the Agricultural board, went to Newark Friday morning on No. 7 to attend the Licking County fair. He will probably get about fifty entries for the Coshocton fair. The local entries close tonight.

Secretary Miller stated this morning that everything looked very bright for the big fair next week. Entries are rolling in from all directions. Several horses were entered from Pittsburgh by telephone this morning.

BLISSFIELD

BLISSFIELD, Sept. 29.—Boyd and Dugan's cow sale at this place Tuesday was well attended. They sold twenty Vermont Jerseys. The price averaged about fifty dollars a head.

James Duesenbury has been very sick the past few days.

Mrs. Laura Fox and Miss Laura Myers were in Coshocton Tuesday. Dr. C. W. Lepley has purchased a farm near Helmick of George McGregor.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stover are visiting relatives in Ashtabula County.

Williamson Bros. have purchased the Jacob Gamersfelder farm. And Abe Miller the present tenant will move to this place.

Pearry Muller is preparing to move to John Cullison's property west of town.

Geo. Sees is loading a car of hickory for the Nellie Handle Factory.

Mrs. Clanda Williamson is visiting in Coshocton.

Frank Sellers will move on the farm recently purchased by Dr. C. W. Lepley.

NEW GUILFORD

NEW GUILFORD, Sept. 20.—Our schools began Monday with Dave Mowery Principal of High School and Geo. Garrison as primary teacher.

Earl Cullison at Neldon's school. Bruce Wiggins at Winding Fork. Leta Sharpless at Goshen. Orville Hughes at Pisgah.

Burl Fry who has been sick is no better at this writing.

Harry Ashcraft is around again after a severe sick spell.

R. E. VanWinkle, our hardware and groceryman who is on the sick list, has obtained Grover Mikesell of West Carlisle as clerk for the following winter.

Farmers are busy now sowing wheat and cutting corn. Corn is good and will be an average crop.

Rev. Critz, our new Minister, failed to fill the charge here Sunday as he has not gotten moved yet. Several were greatly disappointed but we hope that he will be greeted each Sunday with this kind of attendance.

Miss Gertie Wheeler's friends surprised her with a post card shower last Friday. She received 30 cards.

Oda Barrett also received a shower Saturday. He received 28 cards. Post cards are the rage in this part of county.

Chas McMillan our barber has sold out his interests in the barber business to Ross Cullison.

Our hall team has disbanded on account of our Manager R. E. VanWinkle being ill, and several of the players being school teachers.

Mrs. Joseph Cullison has quite a lot of quinces and grapes he wishes to dispose of.

Frank Mantlaw and Joseph Myers are erecting a new house for Samuel Taylor.

French Allen seems to be our champion corn cutter. He cuts from 70 to 75 shocks per day.

VINCENNES IS VERY WET

Thirteenth Indiana County Votes to Retain Its Thirst Parlor.

Vincennes, Ind., Oct. 1.—Knox county voted wet in a local option election by a majority of 820. The city of Vincennes voted wet by a majority of 1,709.

Knox is the thirteenth of the 92 counties in Indiana to vote wet. Sixty-two counties have voted dry and eight are dry through operation of the remonstrance law. Nine counties remain in which no action has been taken.

A disturbance occurred in the Sixth ward where the wets attempted to vote several foreigners. The temperance workers produced certified court records giving the names of all for signers naturalized here within the last five years. No further attempt was made to vote the men. Several men from surrounding towns were met at the borders of Vincennes by the dries and threatened with arrest if they attempted to take part in the election. They did not vote.

S.S.S. HEALS SORES AND ULCERS

S. S. S. heals Sores and Ulcers in the very simplest way. It just goes right down into the blood and removes the cause, and the place is bound to heal because the impurities and morbid matters which have been the means of keeping the ulcer open are no longer absorbed from the blood. External applications of salves, lotions, plasters, etc., can never produce a cure because they do not reach the source of the trouble. At best they can only allay pain or reduce inflammation; such treatment is working on symptoms and not reaching the cause. Every nutritive corpuscle in the blood is weakened or infected, they cannot nourish the fibrous tissue around the place, but instead they constantly discharge into the flesh around the sore a quantity of impure, germ-laden matter which gradually eats into the surrounding healthy tissue and causes the ulcer to enlarge. Since impure blood is responsible for Sores and Ulcers, a medicine that can purify the blood is the only hope of a cure. S. S. S. has long been recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers, possessing the qualities necessary to remove every impurity from the blood. While curing the sore or ulcer S. S. S. brings about a healthy condition of the flesh by supplying it with rich, healthy blood, and thus makes the cure permanent and lasting. Book on Sores and Ulcers sent any medical advice free to all who write.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Much time and more money has been spent and wasted on inferior hair restorers that in the end have produced no benefits. To discover and demonstrate a preparation which will accomplish the desired results has been the aim of the Wyeth Chemical Company.

Wyeth's Sage & Sulphur Hair Restorer is the most successful remedy known for restoring the natural color of the hair, its preservation, the removal of dandruff, allaying itching, cleansing the scalp, stopping the hair falling out, and becoming dead, thereby preserving the hair in its natural and healthy state—without the use of dyes.

It is not an experiment. Its success has been proven and the use of it will properly demonstrate its merits above all other preparations of this nature.

One sufficient reason for the success of Wyeth's Sage & Sulphur Hair Restorer is that sulphur is a natural element of the hair, and when there is not a sufficient amount of it, the hair loses its life, color and strength, turns gray and falls out.

The one kind of sulphur-suitable to prevent this condition in the hair is supplied in Wyeth's Sage & Sulphur Hair Restorer, and a trial will convince you. If your druggist does not keep it, send 50c or $1.00 to the Wyeth Chemical Company, 714 Cortlandt St., N. Y., and a large bottle will be sent you, express prepaid, and your money will be refunded if this remedy does not accomplish what is claimed for it—it's guaranteed.

Free—A liberal sample of our Velvet Cream will be sent anyone mailing us this advertisement and the names and addresses of four friends interested in a Hair Restorer—with a 2c stamp to cover mailing.

ANTI-FRAT LAW

Doubtless all states have laws on their statute books that are dead letters, and Ohio has her share. For instance, the school fraternity law, which forbids all such organizations. The reports from the large cities are that "literary societies" are flourishing, and that the frats are run behind this flimsy blind. A dispatch from Michigan states that the courts in a test case there have declared the law against school frats unconstitutional. If legislators would turn their minds to enforcement of laws already on the books, rather than encumbering them with scores of laws that are not enforced there would be less trouble on earth. The nation with the fewest laws, just as the school with the fewest rules, is the one that progresses fastest.

DIPHTHERIA SITUATION

The action of the board of health in taking hold of the diphtheria situation right at the start, is being commended on all sides. It now looks as though they practically have the malady stamped out, by means of the drastic efforts they and Health Officer Abbott put forth, coming as it did at the right time. The fumigation of the Bancroft school right now is appreciated by the public; and if there is the slightest danger remaining, every school in the city should be fumigated. The public would rather stand the expense in taxes than in private doctor bills. The board of education are standing by the health board in the matter, and while the affair is entirely in the former's hands, yet the latter commends their timely generalship.

Peary ought to take a few lessons from Teddy. He has started his anamas club with only one member.

The modern equipment of The Daily Age was amply evidenced by its full and timely report of the W. C. T. U. convention yesterday right up to 3:45 in the afternoon.

Now for the county fair. Long may she wave, and here's hoping the crowd this year will be the biggest ever.

SHAVE DOWN THE KAPNER CLAIM

Judge Sater of the U. S. Court at Columbus yesterday affirmed the decision of the referee in the matter of Kapner Bros. Hugs Hosiery Co. and a New York firm Riger Kapner & Alt mark, in which the latter asked for $127,000. They got $40,000.

50 PER CENT OF THE POPU.

LATION OF THE U. S. live in rural districts remote from physicians or drug stores, and they are obliged to depend upon proprietary medicines to a very great extent.

To the women in these homes such standard remedies as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound comes as a boon and a blessing. Records show that it has cured more women of those dread feminine ills than any other remedy.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From The Age of October 1, 1899

Some time ago it was announced that the Wheeling and Lake Erie would run a special to the fair, but later the order was countermanded. Secretary Boyd at once took up the matter again, and Wednesday received notification that the special would be put on. The train will leave Canton at seven in the morning, and returning will leave here at 6:30 a.m.

In probate court the other day a marriage license was issued to a man who had been married three times and is about to enter his fourth alliance. He is only 36 years old.

The last of the scarlet fever patients in the city has recovered and the signs have been taken from the houses where the disease was located. Health Officer Foster has disinfecting the buildings.

Five brick-layers are at work on the Rickotts building and no time is being lost. It is the aim to have the building under cover as soon as possible because the near approach of cold weather.

Workmen on the Rodgers building are making the best possible progress and the building is already assuming proportions. The three brick walls are well under way.

Coshocton is becoming a cosmopolitan town. The other evening eight customers gathered in a prominent drug store representing six counties.

The Central Union telephone Co. has completed the line between Newcomerstown and Coshocton thus closing the gap between its territory and that of the Central Printing and Telegraph Co. system. By the connection the Bell Company's service at West Lafayette and a number of other points. The rate from here to Uhrichsville has been made 25 cents.

Feeding Farm Hands.

Every farmer's wife knows what tremendous appetites farm hands usually have; but while they eat well they work well, too.

Here's a good suggestion about feeding farm hands. Give them plenty of Quaker Oats. A big dish of Quaker Oats porridge with sugar and cream or milk is the greatest breakfast in the world for a man who needs vigor and strength for a long day's work. The man that eats Quaker Oats plentifully and often is the man who does good work without excessive fatigue. There is a sustaining quality in Quaker Oats not found in other foods, and for economy it is at the head of the list. Besides the regular size packages Quaker Oats is packed in large size family packages, with 20 and 40 lb. cans.

"Isle of Soice"

Musical comedy is one of the favorite forms of amusement with the Coshocton audiences and with the "Isle of Soice" at the "Sixth St." theatre last night every one was delighted. The piece is one big flame of wit, humor, and laughable situations and all of them are from the three main characters the two sailors and the king of the island. Miss Margaret Felsh, who is pretty and clever has the leading role and some of the best of the songs until Miss Julia DiCyntha elbows her out of the spot light. The way she sings Peggy Brady almost makes the audience jump up and dance. Miss Felsh sings the "Little Maid of Nicobar" and Thursday night received curtain call after curtain call. Her voice is sweet well trained and a bove all strong. Miss DiCyntha if anything outclasses the star although her voice was rather weak. On her Peggy Brady song Thursday night she received eight encores.

The two comedians Harry B. Williams and Harry B. Watson are very amusing in a broadly comic part and their clean cut comedy and unforced effervescence are positive adornments to the company. The two men sing catchy stuff and their dialogue is immense.

Stanley Felsh in the role of Bonapopla was great. His songs were good and catchy and although he had no excellent voice it was one of the kind that is attractive with the attractive songs and he received many encores.

It would be idle to try and enumerate the best characters of the play for each member would have to be mentioned as all of them were excellent and Coshocton theatre patrons who saw the play two seasons ago say that the company this year is really better than at that time.

There is not a song in the piece that does not help to make it attractive and this together with the color harmonies of the costumes make the play one which stolen into the favor of lovers of this sort of entertainment in Coshocton.

Hoarseness in a child subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given at once or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Contains no poison. Sold by all dealers.

NO DYSPEPSIA
STOMACH GAS
OR HEARTBURN

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin and realize not only immediate but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour gassy or out-of-order stomach in five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't fit comfortably or what you eat lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your Pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings no belching of undigested food mixed with acid to stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drugstore.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

Fire Visits Amusement Resort.
Baltimore, Oct. 1.—Fire destroyed about a third of the buildings at River View, an amusement resort of large size, just east of this city. The damage is variously estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000.

The pleasant purgative effect experienced by all who use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and the healthy condition of the body and mind which they create, makes one feel joyful. Sold by all dealers.

PEARY STEAMS
UP THE HUDSON

Roosevelt Takes Part In Big Naval Pageant.

COMMANDER STANDSON BRIDGE

Is Central Figure In Today's Hudson-Fulton Celebration — Immense Crowd Yells Itself Hoarse When German Sailors Play National Anthem While Passing Reviewing Stand In International Parade. Airplane Flights Again Postponed.

New York, Oct. 1.—Standing on the bridge of the Roosevelt as she steamed up the Hudson with her warrior sisters and other marine craft, Commander Robert E. Peary was easily the center of attraction of the great naval parade today. New York's welcome to the returned Arctic traveler was of the most enthusiastic character, and for a time it seemed that the original object of the Hudson-Fulton celebration had been lost sight of in the desire of the spectators to do honor to one of the men who claims to have nailed the stars and stripes to the north pole.

Twenty-five thousand men of arms marched past the massed representatives and special envoys of 37 nations, while 2,000,000 citizens, seated in grandstands or standing along fifth avenue, shouted themselves hoarse in cheers. The great military parade was the climax of the Hudson-Fulton celebration.

Englishmen Loudly Cheered.

Although there were tremendous ovations for each body of American troops and unstinted applause in overwhelming volume for the British sailors, the most conspicuous reception of the day went to the sailors of the German fleet, a picked body of magnificent men, who, as they reached the reviewing stand, fell into the formal slap-slap of the parade goose-step and burst into "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," with an overwhelming volume of brasses and a fervor which took away the breath of the listeners. The benches sat silent for a moment, and then rising bareheaded to their feet, cheered and cheered and cheered again, until their voices gave way and they could only wave hats and handkerchiefs in a long echo of applause.

Miss Edna Puft of Baltie is visiting in this city.

CALLS THIS POLICE SUIT SILLY EFFORT

"I am glad to see Mayor Hamilton win another round in the silly suit that ex-Chief of Police Mapei is bringing," remarked a Main-st business man today. "Mayor Hamilton is perfectly right in his position, and the public is in general accord with him. It looks to me as though this silly suit business is a mere political dodge and I was glad to see the court cast it aside. There certainly was not the slightest grounds for the alleged contempt of court. The fact is Gail Hamilton has made a mighty good mayor all around, and his enemies are trying every dodge they know to bring about his defeat. On a straight out fight on his record, they can find nothing but general commendation by the public. And this trying to throw in a lot of side-issues is falling."

RESIGN FROM THE DUB CLUB—

JOIN THE MUNNIMAKERS

You're worth what you're worth—and all that you're worth. If you can't get all you are worth in your present job, put an ad in the Market Place of the Munnimakers—the busy little classified ads in the AGE. Find out how much money other employers are willing to pay you. Don't waste time hunting for them on foot. It will take too long, and it doesn't pay when the little Munnimaker ads are so cheap, and bring such quick results. If you want to go to work, and if you want to get all your work is worth, a little classified ad in the Age will do more for you than anything else.

TOBACCO POOL IS ASSURED

Growers in Burley District Secure Majority of Acreage.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 1.—Reports from the fifty-odd counties in which burley tobacco is grown in Kentucky indicate that the 80 per cent vote necessary to declare the 1909 Burley society pool has been secured. At Paris, in Bourbon county, only was there an untoward demonstration and an attempt to defeat the pool, but this was overwhelmingly defeated. In Franklin county, of which the state capital, Frankfort, is the county seat, but one vote was registered against the pool.

Reports were that in round numbers 101,000 acres have been pooled and 94,000 not pooled in Kentucky. It has been decided that the pooling books be held open until Oct. 20, and by that time much of the 94,000 acres outstanding will be gathered in. It is expected.

ANXIOUS FOR FIGHT

But Jeffries Thinks $55,000 Paltry Sum For Contest.
Paris, Oct. 1.—James J. Jeffries, the American heavyweight, who has been training here for his proposed fight with Jack Johnson, said that he had almost completely recovered from the cold which he contracted several days ago while attending the races.

Jeffries, who still calls himself the world's champion, expresses himself as disappointed at the meager offer of $55,000 for a fight, saying: "I am the champion of the world. I have everything to lose and nothing to gain. Therefore I don't want to fight for a purse of less than $150,000. That is the sum first proposed, but since I have begun training my adversaries appear less keen. I believe, however, I will make a match when I reach New York. I should prefer to fight in America, rather than in Australia, and have reason to believe that the governors of several states would be willing to allow a fight to take place."

Balloon Wrecks Trolley Wires.

BRYAN SEEKS TO CHANGE CONGRESS

Explains Opposition to Tariff Debate With Bailey.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 1.—William J. Bryan addressed a letter to Clark Howell, in further explanation of his position on the proposed debate with Senator Bailey of Texas. It follows: "I wired you that I would communicate with you by letter my reasons for believing a debate inadvisable. When a joint meeting was suggested at El Paso, Tex., I replied to the effect that I am trying to aid in the election of a Democratic majority in the next congress; that to that end I have suggested a brief but specific tariff plank which I ask Democratic candidates to accept, reject or amend, and that, believing a debate would tend to turn attention from the issue to individuals, I would not consider the proposition unless it came as a personal request."

"I might add the further reason that a debate between two Democrats would accentuate the tariff differences that have embarrassed our party in congress, and give the Republican newspapers a chance to dwell upon Democratic dissensions instead of devoting their time to the contest now being waged between the progressive Republicans and the stand-patters."

"A debate might be pleasing to the participants and entertaining to the audience, but I think that the subject which I am endeavoring to present is worthy of calm and serious consideration."

SCRUBS LOST ANOTHER ROUND

Captain Barnes' band of warriors again defeated the Scrubs in a practice game at Riverside Park Thursday evening. The game lasted only thirty minutes, half ended with C. H. CHILD DIES ON ORCHARD STREET

Paul, the nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ort, corner Tenth and Orchard-sts., died at about four o'clock Thursday afternoon, after being ill for one week with diphtheria. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

This is the second death resulting from the dreaded disease that has occurred in Coshocton, this fall and both deaths happened within a very few days of each other.

The Ort child took sick about one week ago with sore throat which rapidly developed into diphtheria but it was not thought to have been in a serious condition until Thursday when it became suddenly worse and death resulted just before the sun fell behind the hills.

Owing to the disease with which the child died the funeral services will be brief and will be private. They will be held at the home Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment will be made in South Lawn cemetery.

ONE NEW CASE OF DIPHTHERIA

A new case of diphtheria was reported to Health Officer Abbott Friday morning, from the Leech home on N. Eleventh where Earl Leech used to be suffering with the disease.

DETROIT LANDS PENNANT

Philadelphia Loses Last Chance For American League Rag.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1. — Detroit, although defeated by Boston, won the American league baseball pennant for the third time by virtue of Philadelphia's double defeat at the hands of Chicago. Philadelphia had a faint hope of winning the flag by Detroit losing all its remaining games, and the home team taking all it had to play, but the two defeats made it impossible for Philadelphia either to win or tie the champions.

HAD NERVOUS SPELLS

STOMACH OUT OF ORDER AND GAS FORMED.

This Wisconsin Woman, After Two Years of Sickness, Was Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

There is absolutely no way of reaching the nerves with medicine except through the blood. The nerves receive all of their nourishment and support from the blood which under healthful conditions carries the elements needed to rebuild wasted nerve tissue. It is through the blood that all functional nerve troubles must be cured.

The case of Mrs. Herman Burack, of Richland Center, Wis., shows how closely the nerves depend on the blood and is a good endorsement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a medicine which builds up both blood and nerves. She says:

"A few years ago I was generally run down and while in this condition I began to suffer from nervous spells. As they gradually became worse, I had severe pressing pains in the top of my head. The nervous attacks were accompanied by a high fever and it seemed as though I would go crazy. I always had to call a doctor when these spells came on me. My stomach was always disordered and gas formed on it. I was short of breath and so nervous that I could not sleep at all. At night I would be in misery. My appetite failed me and I grew weaker after each nervous spell. I was hardly able to do my house-work.

"The doctors gave me only temporary relief and the last one who treated me said I was on the verge of nervous prostration. I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills after two years of sickness. I received benefit from a few boxes. They gave me good blood and perfect health. I shall always recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as they freed me from misery and torture."

The tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills by building up the blood so that it can nourish and strengthen the weakened nervous system has made hundreds of cures in the most severe disorders. This record of cures should merit a trial for the remedy which is guaranteed free from opiates.

Two new booklets, "Diseases of the Nervous System" and "What to Eat and How to Eat" are free on request. Send a postal for them today.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

LOCAL HORSES IN THE MONEY

Roe M. driven by Charles Sells, got third money in the 2:24 trot at Canton Thursday. Richard Clark's Ham-bone driven by Harry Wade, got third and fourth in the two heats of the unfinished 2:20 trot at Marion Thursday. There were seven starters.

Your nerves must be fed with pure, rich blood, or there will be trouble. Poorly fed nerves are weak nerves; and weak nerves mean nervousness, neuralgia, headaches, debility. Weak nerves need good food, fresh air, and Aver's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla.
